It is hereby clarified that the limits specified above shall apply for transaction or transactions to be entered either individually or taken together with the previous transactions during a financial year.

Policy

All RPTs must be reported to the Audit Committee and referred for approval by the Committee in accordance with this Policy.

All RPTs shall require approval of Audit Committee. Further, all Material RPTs shall require approval of the shareholders through special resolution and the Related Parties shall not vote to approve such resolutions in accordance with the provisions of Companies Act 2013 and Listing Agreement as amended from time to time.

Provided, however, that the requirement of passing the resolution shall not be applicable for transactions entered into between a holding company and its wholly owned subsidiary whose accounts are consolidated with such holding company and placed before the shareholders at the general meeting for approval.

Identification of RPTs

Each Director, "KMP" and other Related Party shall promptly notify the Audit Committee of any material interest that such person or relative of such person had, has or may have in a RPT, by providing notice to the Audit Committee / the Board of any potential RPT involving him or her or his or her Relative together with additional information about the RPTs that the Audit Committee / the Board reasonably request.

The Audit Committee / the Board shall determine whether a transaction does, in fact, constitute a RPT requiring compliance with this Policy.

Review and approval of RPTs

All RPTs shall require approval of Audit Committee;

RPTs shall be referred to the next regularly scheduled meeting(s) of Audit Committee for its review and approval; and

The Audit Committee, in order to review a RPT, shall be provided with all relevant material information of the RPT, including the terms of the transaction, the business purpose of the transaction, the benefits to the Company and to the Related Party, and any other relevant matters.

Criteria for approving RPTs

The Audit committee shall consider the following factors while deliberating the related party transactions for its approval: -

(i) Name of party and nature of relationship;

(ii) Nature of transaction and material terms thereof including duration of transaction and the value of transaction;

(iii) the manner of determining the pricing to ascertain whether the same is on arm's length; and

(iv) Business rationale for entering into such transaction

Any member of the Committee who has a potential interest in any Related Party Transaction will recuse himself and abstain from discussion and voting on the approval of the Related Party Transaction.

Omnibus Approval

Audit Committee is authorised to grant omnibus approval for related party transactions as provided under section 177(4)(iv) of the Act read with rule 6A of the Companies (Meetings of Board and its Powers) Rules, 2014, and regulation 23(3) of the Listing Regulations. Such omnibus approval may be granted for contracts exceeding one year; provided that the contract value shall be subject to fresh approval of Audit Committee on annual basis. Further, the Audit Committee shall consider and approve the omnibus approval based on the following criteria:

(1) The Audit Committee shall, after obtaining approval of the Board of Directors, specify the criteria for making the omnibus approval which shall include the following, namely:-

- (a) maximum value of the transactions, in aggregate, which can be allowed under the omnibus route in a year;
- (b) the maximum value per transaction which can be allowed;
- (c) extent and manner of disclosures to be made to the Audit Committee at the time of seeking omnibus approval;
- (d) review, at such intervals as the Audit Committee may deem fit, related party transaction entered into by the company pursuant to each of the omnibus approval made;
- (e) transactions which cannot be subject to the omnibus approval by the Audit Committee.

(2) The Audit Committee shall consider the following factors while specifying the criteria for making omnibus approval, namely: -

- (a) repetitiveness of the transactions (in past or in future);
- (b) justification for the need of omnibus approval.

(3) The Audit Committee shall satisfy itself on the need for omnibus approval for transactions of repetitive nature and that such approval is in the interest of the company.

(4) The omnibus approval shall contain or indicate the following: -

- (a) name of the related parties;
- (b) nature and duration of the transaction;
- (c) maximum amount of transaction that can be entered into;
- (d) the indicative base price or current contracted price and the formula for variation in the price, if any; and
- (e) any other information relevant or important for the Audit Committee to take a decision on the proposed transaction:

Provided that where the need for related party transaction cannot be foreseen and aforesaid details are not available, audit committee may make omnibus approval for such transactions subject to their value not exceeding rupees one crore per transaction.

(5) Omnibus approval shall be valid for a period not exceeding one financial year and shall require fresh approval after the expiry of such financial year.

(6) Omnibus approval shall not be made for transactions in respect of selling or disposing of the undertaking of the company.

(7) Any other conditions as the Audit Committee may deem fit.

RPTs that do not require review of Audit Committee

(i) Any transaction involving in providing of compensation to a director, KMP or their relatives in connection with his duties to the Company including the reimbursement of reasonable business and travel expenses, lease rental charges and other charges incurred in the ordinary course of business; and

(ii) Any transaction in which the Related Party's interest arises solely from ownership of securities issued by the Company and all holders of such securities receive the same benefits pro-rata as the Related Party.

RPTs not approved under this Policy

If a RPT is entered into by the Company without being approved under this Policy, the same shall be reviewed by the Committee. The Committee shall evaluate the transaction and may decide such action as it may consider appropriate including ratification, revision or termination of the RPT.

In connection with any review of a RPT, the Committee has authority to modify or waive any procedural requirements of this Policy.

Disclosures

The Policy on Related Party Transaction shall be disclosed on the website of the Company and a web link thereto shall also be provided in the Annual Reports of the Company.

This policy may be reviewed, amended and approved from time to time by the Board of Directors of the Company upon the recommendation of the Audit Committee, and at least once every three years.
